

Get agencies paid sooner, without the awkward chase.

Tallybird sends polite invoice reminders, adds a pay-now link, and surfaces cash due this week.

Late invoices leave agencies waiting on their own cash.

Agencies wait 41 days on average to get paid.

41
days

Invoice sent

Payment received

Tallybird makes getting paid feel effortless.

Polite reminders, a direct pay-now link, and a weekly cash-due view bring follow-up into one workflow.

Polite reminder

Friendly, on-brand reminders that keep relationships intact.

Pay-now link

One-click payment for faster, easier invoice repayment.

Cash-due view

See what cash is due this week at a glance.

Three steps turn overdue invoices into clear next actions.

1 Connect invoices.

Connect your invoices

Upload CSV

Connect accounting

Forward invoices

All set!

2 Send a polite reminder with pay-now.

Hi Alex,

Just a friendly reminder that Invoice #1023 is due.

Pay now →

Thanks for your business!

3 See what cash is due this week.

Cash due this week

$18,450

Across 7 invoices

A focused agency
niche creates a
clear market entry.

620,000 small agencies
across the US and UK.

620,000

Tallybird

One simple subscription
aligns revenue
with each agency.

$79 per agency
per month.

Tallybird

$79

per agency
per month

Start today

Agencies are paying, and
monthly revenue is growing.

410

paying agencies

$38k

MRR

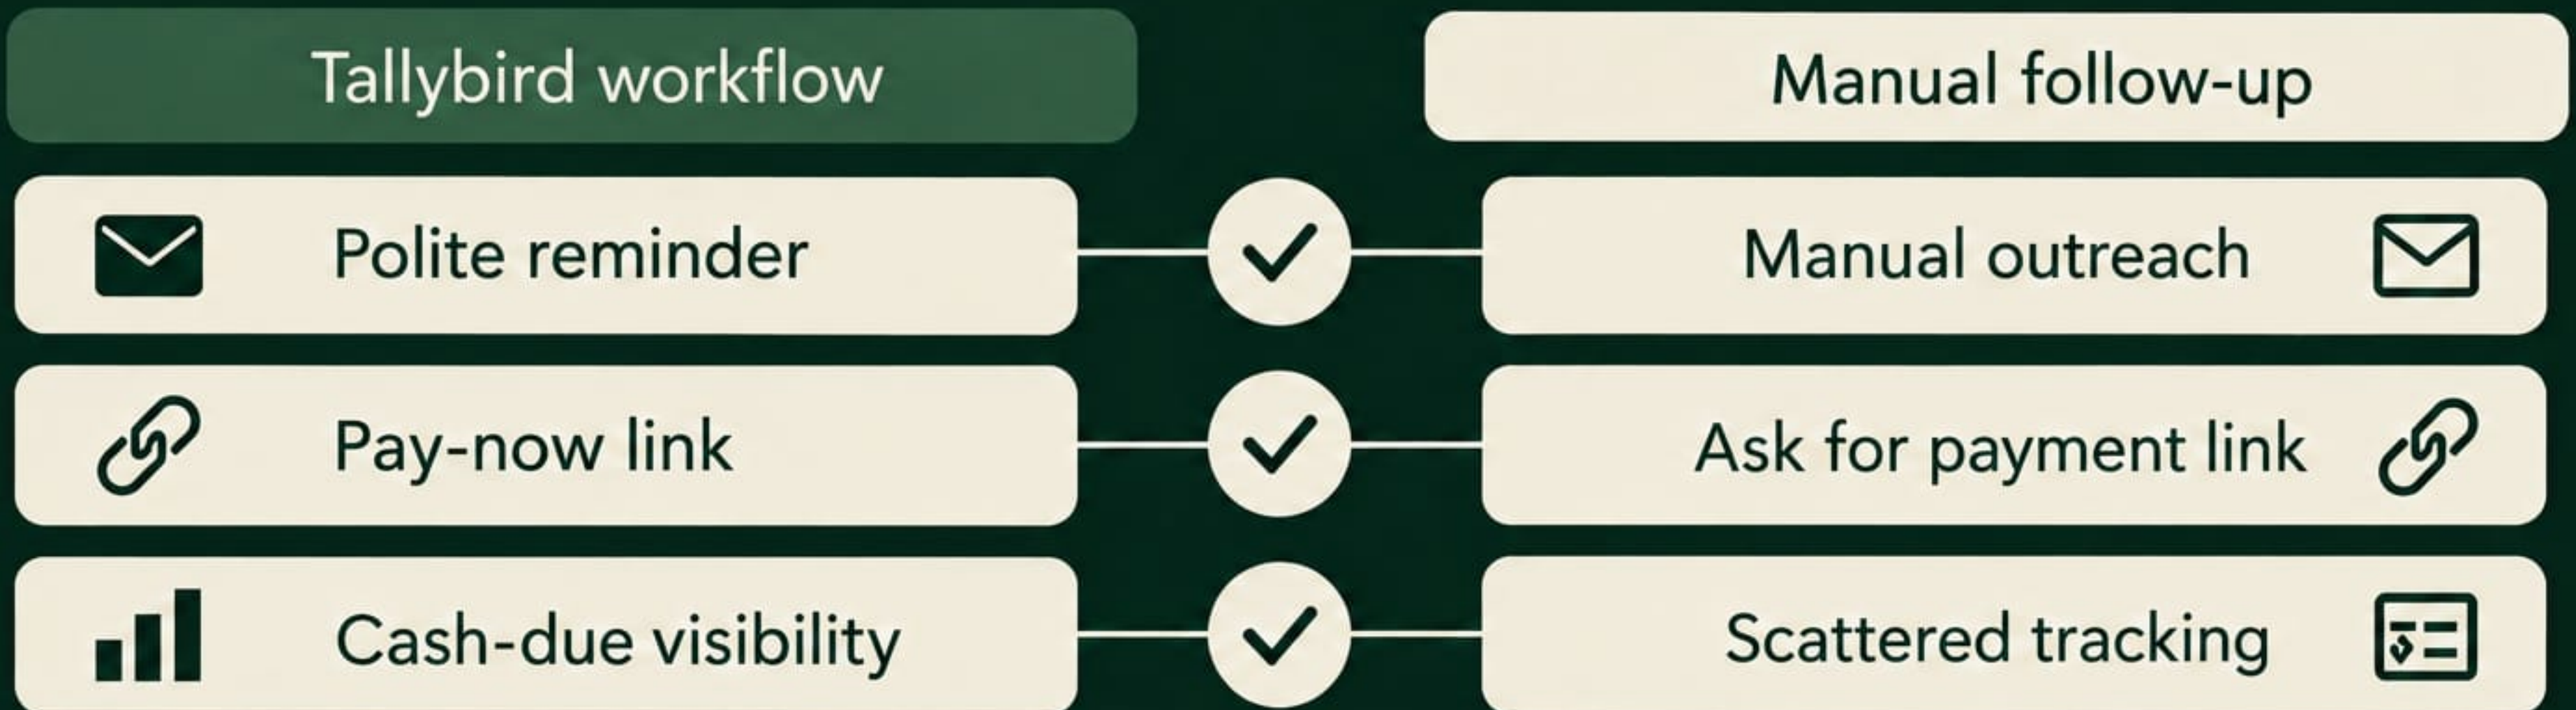

14%

monthly growth

Source: company-provided figures (invented).

Tallybird is built around the agency cash-collection workflow.

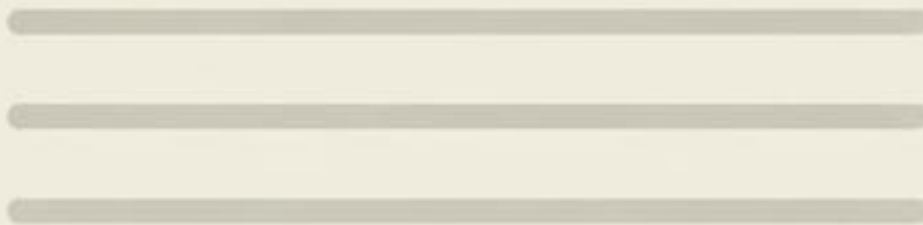

A focused flow connects polite follow-up, pay-now, and cash-due visibility.

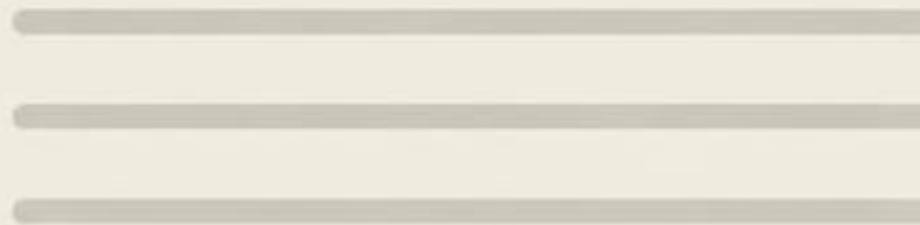

Three core roles cover the work ahead.

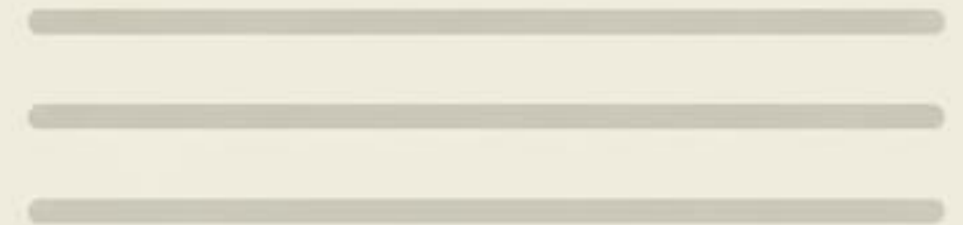

CEO

CTO

Head of Sales

A $2.5M seed
gives Tallybird
18 months of runway.

$2.5M

Raising a $2.5M seed
for 18 months of runway.

← 18 months →